Parker Shaffie, LLP Named A Top Professional Liability and Legal Ethics Law Firm In The 2026 Chambers USA California Spotlight Guide

Los Angeles, Calif. (April 15, 2025)—Parker Shaffie, LLP, a top California boutique law firm specializing in professional liability and legal ethics, has been recognized in the 2026 Chambers USA California Spotlight Guide.

Following a rigorous, independent market analysis, Chambers and Partners selected Parker Shaffie for its handling of high-stakes professional liability matters. The firm is one of a very small group of small-to-mid-sized firms acknowledged for its high level of expertise and talent across the state.

"This acknowledgment reflects our commitment to providing top-tier results tailored to the needs of our clients," says Partner David Parker. "We are honored to be recognized by Chambers for the caliber of our work."

Parker Shaffie earned its ranking through decades of successfully representing both plaintiffs and defendants in the professional liability arena. The firm is widely regarded as the "first call" for those navigating complex malpractice claims and ethical dilemmas.

"This selection highlights our decades-long commitment to defining the ‘right way’ to practice law in California," says Partner Shawn Shaffie. "Whether it is a nuanced ethical issue or a major liability claim, our firm is the one that professionals trust."

The California Spotlight Guide identifies the top-performing small-to-mid-sized firms in the state, drawing on over 30 years of market research in the U.S. legal market.
